UP AMONG CLOUDS IS THIS WONDER

American Phenomena at-tract Wide Interest. . . . McGinnis Reports.

North and South America are rivals in natural phenomena. Up dizzy heights in the Andes Mountains is located one spot that may be the closest approach to the Vitalitas deposit found in Texas. The Andean wonder consists of medicated waters that burst out of a mountain side. Thousands go there in the hopes of regaining lost health. These medicated waters have but a faint trace of the curative properties so wonderfully blended in Vitalitas. Many who have failed to find relief in the medicated waters are restored to health by the use of Vitalitas, as shown by numerous statements. Here is one by J. S. McGinnis, a widely known pianist of Oakville, Tenn.

"I have been to Hot Springs and have tried doctors from everywhere but found little relief. For six years I had been suffering from chronic indigestion and had stomach trouble and rheumatism for years. I decided to try Vitalitas. The first bottle brought me relief, but not being satisfied tried another. In years I have not felt better than I do now. I can eat without fear of after effects, have gained 5 pounds. I feel like a new man. I can safely recommend Vitalitas."

Vitalitas comes out of the earth; it is wholly a Nature product, free of alcohol or any harmful ingredients. Many chronic disorders are swept away by it. It is particularly recommended for chronic indigestion, rheumatism, nervous debility and as a general corrective. For sale by Kelly & Pollard's Drug Store, also sold by Talber's Drug Store, La Cruces; Columbus Drug Store, Columbus; Douglas Drug Store, Douglas and Biebee Drug Store, Biebee.—Adv.

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. EXTRA DORSON, Ogdensburg, Wis. Physicians undoubtedly did their best with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

It is difficult to say at this period what books are of real value which have been written on the European war. The list which follows covers all sides of the question, and is fairly representative of the literature which has been published during the past two years. They may be had at the public library:

Burgess—"European War of 1914."

The GOSSIP CORNER

By RUTH MONRO AUGER.

EVERYONE is anxious to hear Helen Cooper Williams sing, as it is such a long time since her lovely voice has been heard in El Paso. Consequently much interest is being manifested in the singing concert to be given at the Woman's club, in which Mrs. Williams will be the soloist, with the Orpheus club's men's chorus and Ignatius Louis Telle, violinist, assisting. Mrs. Williams is an El Paso girl and grew up here, so she is very well known. Returning from her European study, she has been in the city for three years. Mrs. Williams remained but a short time in El Paso, going on to the Pacific coast. Here she won much success and well-deserved recognition for her musicianship and her beautiful voice. There is a possibility that Mrs. Williams may remain for some time in El Paso.

Mr. Telle, the violinist, who is to play on the same program, is also well known to El Paso. He came to El Paso shortly after the Mexican revolution and spent quite a while in El Paso, playing at a number of concerts. From here he went to Santa Fe, N. M., where he spent some time, becoming quite a musical favorite. More lately he has been playing in an orchestra in Chicago. The Orpheus club is a men's chorus of 24 voices directed by Charles J. Andrews. The club has been in existence for three years and has done some creditable work in that time.

Pretty, striking Laura Maude has returned to us again and mightily glad indeed are her many El Paso friends. Now that she is a matron, it might be more dignified to think of her as Mrs. Lee Heberd, but to most of her friends, she will always be Laura Maude. Her husband is a native El Paso boy and is well known here, too, so there will be a number of friends of his who will be glad on his account, as well as hers. One thing nice about this little El Paso of ours, once you live here, you can seldom be absolutely happy anywhere else, for El Paso calls you back.

The annual campaign for the University Scholarship club's two scholars has begun. This work will hold the attention of all people interested in helping young people to train themselves through education. The club has accomplished a great amount of good in the past and a wonderful amount of work may be expected from it in the future. The purpose of the club is to provide each year two scholarships, one for a boy and one for a girl, for the graduates of the high school for the first year's course in any university of their selection. The club aims to be an incentive to the graduates to continue their education in higher institutions of learning. The members of the club each pay $1 a year and each is entitled to a vote for one candidate, the women voting for the girls and the men for the boys. Through a number of voluntary gifts from the public-spirited men and women of El Paso, a loan fund has also been established, so that every year, in addition to the scholarships, two loan funds, sufficient for one year's work, are given, one to a boy and one to a girl. The first year at college is always the hardest for the boy or girl away from home and with limited funds. The town is strange and the student is unacquainted with the opportunities of working to help pay his way. The approximate amount of his expenses is also an unknown quantity. Consequently the University Scholarship club takes the stand that helping a student through the first year will make it possible for him to help himself through the remaining years of his university course.

The members of the club each pay $1 a year and each is entitled to a vote for one candidate, the women voting for the girls and the men for the boys. Through a number of voluntary gifts from the public-spirited men and women of El Paso, a loan fund has also been established, so that every year, in addition to the scholarships, two loan funds, sufficient for one year's work, are given, one to a boy and one to a girl. The first year at college is always the hardest for the boy or girl away from home and with limited funds. The town is strange and the student is unacquainted with the opportunities of working to help pay his way. The approximate amount of his expenses is also an unknown quantity. Consequently the University Scholarship club takes the stand that helping a student through the first year will make it possible for him to help himself through the remaining years of his university course.

A much-needed visiting nurse health league is being formed here to minister to the needs of the families of the poor and of the low-salaried people. There is the trained graduate nurse who is willing to help those who can afford her, the practical nurse for the less fortunate, and the charity nurse for those who can pay nothing, but society can do more. The work of the small salary, from $10 to $15 a week, apply for efficient care for his wife or children when they are sick. The nurse of the visiting nurse league will combine both charity work and care for people who are able to pay only a small amount. The county

By RUTH MONRO AUGER.

EVERYONE is anxious to hear Helen Cooper Williams sing, as it is such a long time since her lovely voice has been heard in El Paso. Consequently much interest is being manifested in the singing concert to be given at the Woman's club, in which Mrs. Williams will be the soloist, with the Orpheus club's men's chorus and Ignatius Louis Telle, violinist, assisting. Mrs. Williams is an El Paso girl and grew up here, so she is very well known. Returning from her European study, she has been in the city for three years. Mrs. Williams remained but a short time in El Paso, going on to the Pacific coast. Here she won much success and well-deserved recognition for her musicianship and her beautiful voice. There is a possibility that Mrs. Williams may remain for some time in El Paso.

Mr. Telle, the violinist, who is to play on the same program, is also well known to El Paso. He came to El Paso shortly after the Mexican revolution and spent quite a while in El Paso, playing at a number of concerts. From here he went to Santa Fe, N. M., where he spent some time, becoming quite a musical favorite. More lately he has been playing in an orchestra in Chicago. The Orpheus club is a men's chorus of 24 voices directed by Charles J. Andrews. The club has been in existence for three years and has done some creditable work in that time.

Pretty, striking Laura Maude has returned to us again and mightily glad indeed are her many El Paso friends. Now that she is a matron, it might be more dignified to think of her as Mrs. Lee Heberd, but to most of her friends, she will always be Laura Maude. Her husband is a native El Paso boy and is well known here, too, so there will be a number of friends of his who will be glad on his account, as well as hers. One thing nice about this little El Paso of ours, once you live here, you can seldom be absolutely happy anywhere else, for El Paso calls you back.
